Clare gets parking ticket shock after she leaves her for repairs

A MOTORIST who left her car at a Dudley garage for repairs was slapped with a parking fine and hounded by debt collectors after a mechanic drove it to his bank and picked up a ticket.

Clare Griffiths was forced to pay out £198. She paid the amount to get a debt collection agency off her back after the garage worker was given a parking ticket on a pub car park in Kingswinford.

But Miss Griffiths, of Halesowen, has received an apology from the garage and a promise of her money back. A bouquet of flowers has also been dispatched.

Tim Barnes, retail operator for T Wall

Garages in Pensnett, said the mechanic in question no longer worked for the firm.

He said: "I am ashamed and disappointed that this happened."

"It's a fair cop and we would have disciplined the technician if he had still been with us – but he has left our employment."

Harassed

"I have written a letter of apology to the customer and we will refund their costs."

"I am also sending her a bouquet of flowers and have created a £100 credit for her to spend at T Wall."

Miss Griffiths, aged 31, of Beecher Street, Colley Gate, finally paid £198 two weeks ago because she was upset at being "harassed" by debt collectors.

Miss Griffiths, an accounts assistant and mother of a three-year-old son, Oliver, took her Ford Focus to T Wall Garages for repairs on May 24 and she collected it at 5pm that day.

But, in July, she discovered a debt collection agency was chasing her at her old address for payment of a parking ticket that had been issued at 4.20pm on May 24 on the car park at the Arizona Crossing pub.

"I was appalled that my vehicle had been taken out and left on a public house car park," said Miss Griffiths.

Top Church under threat of closing

Seven churches in Dudley are facing closure as current fundraising efforts are "not enough" to keep them running.

The Diocese of Worcester challenged communities to step up to the plate if they want to keep the buildings – including the landmark Top Church – open in the face of shrinking congregations and £1.12 million of urgent repair work.

Andrew Mottram, the diocese's heritage buildings officer, helped organise a public consultation which ended last week.

"All seven church communities in the Dudley Group are already committed to increasing use of the buildings and are doing significant fundraising themselves," he said.

"However, all these efforts are not enough to meet the financial cost of keeping the church buildings open and their ministry running."

The churches are: St Thomas & St Luke (Top Church) and nearby St Edmunds Church, St Francis Church in Poplar Crescent, St Barnabas in Middlepark Road, St James the Great in Eve Hill, St Augustine of Hippo in Stourbridge Road, and St John's in Kates Hill.

Driver, 19, took mother's car

A man has been banned from driving after he took his mother's car without her consent, a court heard.

Hassan Ali only had a provisional licence and was not insured to drive her Honda Jazz when he was seen by police.

The 19-year-old computer software engineer was also found with cannabis in the car when officers caught him in Long Lane, Halesowen, on November 8.

Ali, of Springfield Road, Halesowen, pleaded guilty to the driving charges and to possession of a class B drug at Dudley Magistrates Court last week.

He was banned from driving for 18 months and fined £200.

Ali was also fined £400 for having no insurance, £100 for no licence and £85 for possessing cannabis with £85 court costs.

Safety help on offer to elderly

A safety scheme has been launched in Halesowen this week to help older people feel safe and secure in the community.

The living well, feeling safe scheme provides practical safety, security and wellbeing advice for older people.

Staff will be visiting homes in the Short Cross area of Halesowen until Friday. Free assessments will be offered where advice is provided on home safety and security.

A drop-in service will also be available at Short Cross Methodist Church, Attwood Street, until Friday, starting at 9.30am until 3pm. Home safety and security equipment can be fitted and home and personal alarms will be offered. The service can be contacted on 01384 817743.

Doctorate honour for nurse

A consultant nurse in Dudley has been awarded her doctorate from the University of the West of England.

Dr Gail Parsons received her doctorate for her studies into how patients manage their pain while preparing for hip and knee replacement surgery.

Gail, who joined the Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust in 1979 as an orthopaedic nurse, was formerly awarded her doctorate at a graduation ceremony at Bristol Cathedral.

"I feel elated and really proud that I've been able to make a real difference to our T&O patients," said Dr Parsons, who is in the trauma and orthopaedics department.

"There's a huge sense of personal satisfaction in completing a large piece of work," she added.

"It makes me especially happy to know the team who took part in the study can share the achievement with me."

Cracker of fair planned

A Christmas fair is being held at St Peter's Church, Upper Gornal on Saturday. It has a Christmas cracker theme and will include stalls, tombola and a grand draw.

Santa will be in his grotto at 11.30am and 1.30pm, with the whole event running from 10.30am-2.30pm. Entry is 25p and the church is based on Kent Street.

A music group from Brierley Hill is gearing up for its first big Christmas concert at a Stourbridge church next month.

Musicians from Thorns Community Music Group have been busy rehearsing songs that they hope will provide an extra special start to the festive season.

Christmas carols, seasonal favourites and songs from the show will all be performed at Churn Hill Church on Wednesday December 7.

Tickets, which need to be booked in advance, cost £2.50 and will include a glass of wine and a mince pie.

Pride

Bobby Johnson is the group's band leader who has been a professional musician for more than 60 years.

He said: "We are all bursting with pride with what we have achieved over the last year and are looking forward to performing everything from show songs to Christmas along favourites. This will be our first big Christmas concert as a performing band and are all really excited about sharing our music, we might even inspire a few new members to come and join us."

The band rehearses on Wednesday evenings at Thorns Community College, Stockwell Road, Brierley Hill from 7.30pm. The group is already 30 strong but is still welcoming new members who own and play a wind instrument and can read music.

To book tickets for the concert email bobbyjohnson@talktalk.net or call 01384 394501.

Online service for business welcomed

A Dudley MP has welcomed the start of a new online scheme to help businesses seek information and support. The launch of the new businesslink.gov.uk online services at the start of Global Entrepreneurship Week has been welcomed by Chris Kelly, MP for Dudley South. He says it provides a single point of contact for businesses and startups seeking high-quality information and support on issues such as how best to set up a new business.

Mr Kelly said: "We need to do everything that we can to help entrepreneurs start and grow their businesses – and create jobs for local people here in Dudley South and the Black Country. That is why this new business support package is so important. Information is available online and over the telephone, complimented by practical help from thousands of volunteer business mentors."

Replacements on way to children's play area

New swings, slides and a climbing wall have been ordered to replace equipment stolen by metal thieves from a children's play area in Halesowen.

The play equipment was cut down by thieves on August 30 at the play area at The Leasowes.

Two swings, two slides, a climbing wall and a chain bridge were taken during the raid at the site just off Mucklow Hill. Borough bosses believe the equipment may have been taken to be sold on for scrap. Councillor David Stanley of Dudley Council said: "Replacement equipment has now been ordered, but we don't yet have a date for installation."

In September gangs of youths were banned from gathering at The Leasowes.

A graffiti vandal has been banned from carrying spray cans and marker pens around the streets of Halesowen and faces detention if he does not comply.

Creagan Piesley, aged 18, carried out a "spree of criminal damage", Dudley Magistrates Court heard.

He was handed a two-year criminal anti-social behaviour order, known as a crasbo, by District Judge Graham Wilkinson.

"You have reached a decisive point in your life where you can either grow up and respect people's property or go to prison," the judge said.

The court heard last week how Piesley, of King Street, Halesowen, stole spray paint cans from Wilkinson's in the town centre before targeting the wall of a Dudley Council-owned property.

District Judge Wilkinson said: "This Crasbo is necessary to protect the public from further harm from you. It does harm to private property and it can be an upsetting situation to find graffiti on your property and to have to pay for it to be cleaned.

"If it is on public property it is the local taxpayer footing the bill.

"I know you think of yourself as some sort of urban artist but it's time you started respecting people's property which you have no right to touch."

He added that if police caught Piesley with any spray cans or marker pens around the town in the next two years, he will be brought back before the courts for a greater punishment.

Caught

Piesley pleaded guilty to shoplifting and criminal damage.

He will also serve a 12-month community order concurrently for the two offences and a three-month curfew between 7pm and 5am. He will also pay £100 costs.

Mr Barry Sealeaf, prosecuting, said Piesley had been caught on CCTV in the Wilkinson's store stealing six aerosol spray cans worth £30.10 with another male on July 13.

Mr Stephen Hamblett, defending, said his client was prepared to co-operate with his punishment.

Alexandra Westwood is walked to school by a Cyberman from Doctor Who

Doctor Who treat for fan Alex

It was a dream come true for avid Doctor Who fan Alexandra Westwood when she was walked to school by a Cyberman. The 10-year-old from Halesowen was taken to her lessons at Huntingtree Primary School by one of the Doctor's biggest enemies from the cult television show.

Alexandra had her wish granted by the Wishing Well charity, based at Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital. She had spent time on the children's ward after an ear operation in September.

Steve Ford, of Wishing Well, said: "Alexandra has to be the world's biggest Doctor Who fan. She even wore Doctor Who socks for the occasion. Alexandra had a lovely time and was really sad when the Cyberman had to leave."

The Cyberman was film and TV prop builder Nigel Parkes of Kidderminster who has a collection of Doctor Who memorabilia.

More time to have say over cuts

People in Dudley are being given more time to have their say on council plans to slash £12 million from its budget in the years running through to 2014.

Council chiefs have begun drawing up plans to save £8m in 2012/2013 and £4m in 2013/2014 and want to hear views from locals in an online consultation via the authority's website. The consultation had been due to come to an end earlier this month but bosses say they have given people more time to put forward their thoughts.

So far around 60 comments have been made on the plans.

Council leader, Councillor Les Jones, said: "Although we had initially put a finish date on the consultation, on consideration a few days after we launched it, we removed that date as we want to give people as long as possible to have their say on the budget proposals."

"Over the last month we have had around 60 comments made online and I hope more people will take the opportunity to get involved and have their say in the budget making process before final decisions are taken next March."

Priorities

Councillor Jones added: "It is very important to us that we understand what peoples' priorities are and we want to hear residents views. Setting these budget proposals has been extremely difficult but we are confident that we have identified savings which will maintain a high quality of service to borough residents."

This year, Dudley Council made £22 million of cuts, axing more than 400 staff posts.

Proposals for next year so far include the introduction of new roadside parking charges in Dudley and Stourbridge, where shoppers can currently park for free up to two hours.

The council also plans to increase bereavement service costs. Other cuts include axing the three town centre manager roles, saving £141,000, and cutting the grant to the Black Country Living Museum.

Top medal for scout with the cheeky grin

Zumba steps up for charity

Class leader Alison Pickering with Adele Millard and other group members Fitness fanatics raised more than £1,600 for Breast Cancer Care by showing off their stamina during a three-hour Zumbathon.

Some 37 members of a regular class at Olive Hill Primary, Halesowen, kept going to 50 music tracks guided by group leader Alison Pickering.

Mrs Pickering, aged 45, of Cradley Heath, has run the twice-weekly session for a year and says she was "gobsmacked" by their performance. She said: "We've got people of all

A brave teenager whose "cheeky smile" hides the pain of a crippling illness has been awarded a top scouting medal for his courage.

Explorer scout Ben Hart, aged 16, of Pedmore, Stourbridge, has earned the Medal for Meritorious Conduct.

The award, which is the second highest in scouting, is in recognition of his "strength and determination" despite him suffering from a debilitating health condition.

West Mercia county scout commissioner Paul Wong presented him.

Ben was diagnosed with the bone condition Perthes Disease at the age of five and began his scouting life as a beaver scout a year later.

He moved up through the ranks, even though his mobility was at times heavily restricted, having to use crutches or a wheelchair, and he has undergone operations over the years.

Expedition

Ben said: "It is a true honour to receive this award. Without my friends in scouting supporting me, I would not have been able to keep going and achieve what I have."

After moving from his former home in Oxfordshire, Ben joined the 17th Stourbridge Pedmore St Peter's troop in September 2009. When he moved to the Explorer Scout Unit, he volunteered to stay on with Pedmore Scout Group as a young leader.

He gained his bronze Duke of Edinburgh award last year and started on his silver award in January, completing practice walks and a pre-expedition hike. He was planning his expedition for September.

After his condition worsened in June and he was diagnosed with osteochondritis, he thought he would be unable to complete the expeditions. But it has now been organised for him at a centre in the Forest of Dean.

Explorer scout leader Mike Randle said: "Ben takes on challenges like he does everything else - with grit, determination and a cheeky smile that hides any pain he is suffering."

D-Day veteran died wearing his poppy

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

AD-Day hero known to thousands of Black Country scouts who attended the camp he used to run died on Remembrance Day - wearing a poppy nurses pinned to his hospital gown.

The 90-year-old was suffering from a chest infection.

Claude Jukes - better known as Jim - who ran Kinver Scout Camp, near Stourbridge for several decades, was taken prisoner of war after helping to defend the Pegasus bridge, which had been retaken from the Germans in the early hours of D-Day.

He died at Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital.

His family said that after he was taken into hospital he was determined to hold on to life long enough to see Remembrance Day.

"One of our sons commented - he's waiting for the right day to die," said Mr Jukes's widow, Sheila, aged 80, at their home in Foley Grove, Wombourne.

Television

"I stood in front of the television wearing the poppy on his cap, as he always did, during the two-minute silence on the 11th of the 11th - and the nurses made sure he had a poppy pinned to his gown for Armistice Sunday, when he died at about 7am."

Mr Jukes, a retired printer, who worked at companies in West Bromwich and Dudley, was warden at Kinver Scout Camp - a voluntary job - for more than 30 years and he also used to run a scout group in Dudley.

He and Sheila met at a dance at Kinver British Legion and this year they celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary.

"He didn't really talk about his time in the D-Day landings, saying it was gone and we had to look to the future, anniversary.

Jim Jukes, his wife Sheila and grandson Sam at Royal garden party in 2007 which for him was scouting," said Mrs Jukes.

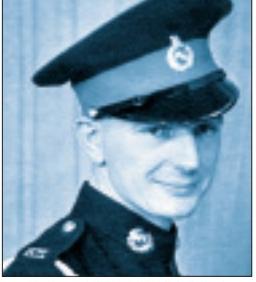

"Since he died, I have had phone calls from people who attended his camps from as far away as Cornwall."

Mr Jukes's two sons, Andrew and Tim accompanied him several years ago to revisit Pegasus bridge which crossed the Caen Canal and was taken from the Germans soon after the landings in 1944.

"My father was a marine commando and was among the first to land on Sword beach," said Andrew.

"His landing craft was hit by rocket fire and he had to jump off and swim to the beach."

"The mission was to relieve the paratroop men at Pegasus bridge and he showed us the bullet holes he had dodged."

Council job losses will cost £3m

Around £3 million will be spent by Dudley Council next year to cover the cost of workers leaving through redundancy.

The local authority has launched the second year of a redundancy programme which will see around 200 positions go by April 2013.

Following an announcement in January, bosses have already shed more than 400 jobs this year as part of a bid to save £22 million.

The move is part of wider plans to axe 800 jobs over the next three years.

Councillor David Blood, cabinet member for finance, confirmed the cost. He said: "The existing three-year budget strategy allows for £3m of redundancy costs for 2012/13."

School celebrates as measures lifted

An incredible turnaround was being celebrated at a Cradley Heath nursery and primary school after it went from special measures to being rated 'good'.

Timbertree Nursery and Primary School was put into special measures by Ofsted in March last year, mainly due to falling results.

But following a further inspection last Tuesday, the measures have now been lifted.

And inspectors have now given the school an overall good rating, the second highest classification on the four-point scale.

Executive headteacher Tracy Ruddle said: "I'm so pleased with the results."

"Very few schools that come out of special measures manage to be graded as 'Good'."

"I feel this reflects the hard work put in by all of the staff, pupils and parents."

Managed

Following the original Ofsted in March, Sandwell Council suggested Timbertree federated with nearby Corngreaves Primary to improve results.

This was because this school had already managed to turn itself around after going into special measures and has since become a national teaching school – providing special training for teachers.

And staff at Timbertree say it was this support that has enabled them to turn around their own fortunes.

Timbertree's head of school Hayley

Looking forward to festive fair

Pupil Zoe Willets in Santa's grotto

Walker, the former assistant headteacher at Corngreaves, said: "Our teachers have been able to benefit from the special training provided at Corngreaves Primary. Due to the training, the quality of teaching has shot up and so have our results."

Mrs Walker said 61 per cent of pupils were now achieving a level five in numeracy compared with just 30 per cent when they were put into

The school will be holding its Christmas Fair on Saturday. It will be opened by Councillor Ann Shackleton, deputy mayor of Sandwell, along with deputy consort Michael Shackleton.

There will be tombolas, guess the weight of the Christmas cake and gift stalls, including handmade jewellery and greetings cards.

There will also be face painting, refreshments and Santa's grotto – with snow.

Executive headteacher Tracy Ruddle said: "Each class has been donating items for the tombolas and making hampers which will be raffled off on the day – we're all starting to feel really festive and are looking forward to welcoming lots of visitors."

It runs from 2pm to 4pm.

special measures. She added: "Our next push is to be rated outstanding."

"We are looking to involve the community and parents into developing our curriculum. We also want to improve our ICT facilities and develop of how we use them."

Miss Ruddle was praised in the latest inspection report for her outstanding and inspirational leadership.

Attacks on hospital staff are on the rise

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

The number of staff attacked while on duty at hospitals has increased by up to a third in some parts of the Midlands, new figures claim.

There were 129 workers assaulted last year in Worcestershire compared with 90 in 2009/10 while in Dudley there were 63 cases reported in 2010/11, up from 53.

Meanwhile the number of assaults at hospitals in Sandwell has dropped from 157 to 137. In Worcestershire, there were two incidents of intentional violence to staff resulting in police action.

Verbal warnings, formal letters and even banning culprits from the site except for emergency treatment are among the other steps taken by the hospitals.

Safety training is available for staff at Kidderminster, Redditch and Worcester.

Associate medical director and accident and emergency consultant, Rose Johnson, said: "A&E staff in particular have to face many challenging situations during the course of their duties."

Serious

"Fortunately we see small numbers of serious physical assaults on staff, but those assaults have long-term consequences for the members of staff involved and staff often feel that they can no longer carry on working in this environment after the event."

"The larger numbers of incidents of verbal abuse can feel very threatening to staff and make their difficult jobs even more challenging."

While in Dudley, CCTV is being used to try to catch culprits and a 24-hour manned security service is available to support staff.

Paula Clark, chief executive of The Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust, said: "The Dudley Group takes a zero tolerance approach to violence and aggression and we support staff to report any incidents that occur."

Sandwell and West Birmingham Hospitals NHS Trust spokeswoman Helen Eden said out of the 137 assaults on staff, 61 involved medical factors while 76 were deliberate.

Operation Santa's appeal

Volunteer Elaine Nicholson surrounded by gifts

An appeal for toys and gifts to give to disadvantaged youngsters in Dudley has got off to a flying start.

Organisers have recruited additional volunteers to start wrapping up the Christmas presents but say they still need more donations.

They are appealing for toys, games, books, selection boxes and all sorts of gifts to be handed into the Operation Santa collection centres throughout the borough.

It is hoped that more than 1,400 children across Dudley will benefit. Eileen Fielding who is co-ordinating the appeal, said: "We have received hundreds of items so far. Fortunately we have had the services of two extra helpers at the Dudley Council for Voluntary Service gift collection centre in Britley Hill".

Elaine Nicholson, from Halesowen and Emma Grundley from Bilston both work for Mid-Counties Co-Op Travel Services which encourages staff to help out with a voluntary organisation or charity of their own choosing.

Both chose Operation Santa as the most worthwhile cause.

Protesters to speak at council debate

Protesters have won the right for a special debate over controversial plans to shut a Kingswinford care home after collecting thousands of signatures in opposition to the proposals.

Leading campaigner Mac Scott MBE will address Dudley Council's full council meeting on November 28 to kick-start the 30-minute debate.

"It is a great chance for us to finally have the issue on the agenda of a meeting and to be able to hear a full debate," he said. Residents will be able to see the debate live on the Internet as the council plans to broadcast it through its website for the first time.

They triggered a debate after collecting more than 5,000 signatures against council plans to shut New Bradley Hall which cares for the elderly.

Anyone handing in a petition of more than 3,000 signatures can force councillors to debate an issue within the council chamber. Council chiefs say the plans form part of a strategy to encourage older people to live more independently and in some cases be cared for at private homes.

But Mr Scott together with residents and their relatives from the Compton Drive home want to overturn the decision.

"We will be looking to make a number of points to get our message across," he said.

Grandson joins in fight on care home

A devoted grandson has stepped in to help the plight of his grandfather and other residents at a closure-threatened Kingswinford care home by backing fundraising efforts.

Summerhill School pupil Thomas Attwood makes several visits a week to see his grandfather Fred, aged 77, who lives at New Bradley Hall.

But he was shocked to learn that his grandfather could be forced to leave as Dudley Council plans to shut the home under a shake-up of adult social care services in the borough.

The 15-year-old, from Wordsley, will be leading a sponsored walk from the care home to the Dudley Council House steps on December 17.

Helping

"It is going to be a nightmare if he has to move," he said. "I just wanted to raise awareness and keep the issue in the public eye so everybody knows what's happening."

His parents Nigel and Margaret Attwood, who also have a 20-year-old son Scott, have been helping Thomas raise money through their work colleagues.

Mrs Attwood, who works at Asda at the Merry Hill shopping centre, said the whole family had been taken aback by the closure plans.

"It was a real shock, especially as he has already moved from Amblecote House when it closed a few months

Fred Attwood with his grandson Thomas who is planning a sponsored walk to raise money to fund a legal costs aimed at saving the home ago," she said. "We wanted him to be close to where we live and he is only two minutes down the road so it was ideal."

Thomas said 'let's do something about it' and came up with this idea to hold a sponsored walk."

He wants to start off at around midday from the Compton Drive care home near Broadfield House Glass Museum.

Walkers will then take the near five mile stroll to the council house in Priory Road, Dudley, with people sponsoring them. Cash raised will be put towards the £3,000 needed by the New Bradley Hall action group to pay their initial legal fees.

New Bradley Hall's oldest resident Hilda Turner turned 104 last week and her daughter Jane Fasey said the family would be looking forward to celebrating.

Thomas is looking for other grandchildren of residents to take part by contacting him at nigelone@blueyonder.co.uk

Sue Jakeman of Loaves 'n' Fishes, Wayne Barker of Tesco, and back, Gordon Roberts. They are hoping to make Christmas special for needy children

Charity appeals for new Christmas gifts

An appeal has been launched to fill shopping trolleys with presents for a Cradley Heath charity supporting children over Christmas.

Volunteers from Cradley Heath Baptist Church are hoping to collect a sackful of gifts for children in the town.

They have teamed up with Cradley Heath-based charity Loaves 'n' Fishes for the effort, aiming to help needy families.

Organisers are asking if generous shoppers could leave any presents in a specially decorated trolley in the Tesco supermarket in Cradley Heath. People can donate any new gifts, from cuddly toys to board games, after the supermarket giant agreed to help out.

Project manager Gordon Roberts, aged 67, said the move proved successful last year and the volunteers are hoping for more of the same.

"It is just about putting a smile on children's faces and helping their parents at what can be a hard time of year," he said.

He added second-hand toys or pre-wrapped presents could not be accepted in the scheme which runs until Christmas Eve.

Lurcher pups and mother are taken

Nine newborn lurcher puppies and their mother have been stolen from their home in Upper Gornal – just one week after police foiled thieves who took two of the litter.

Devastated owner and mother-of-two Jeanette Manley, aged 46, said the puppies were only five weeks old and she was terrified about what might happen to the dogs and their mother, 18-month-old Tia.

Police confirmed they had launched an investigation into the thefts of the pets.

"We came home and found that one of the posts on the dog pen had been jemmed out of the ground, and all the puppies had gone," said Mrs Manley, of Vale Street, Upper Gornal.

"I really want to get them back."

We've had Tia since she was eight weeks old and I'm really worried they will just dump her and sell off the puppies.

Surprise

"You don't know what kind of home they are going into – it's very distressing," she added.

Earlier this month, the family had a nasty shock when two of the puppies went missing following a visit from a man claiming to be a prospective buyer – but within two days police had tracked them down.

The dogs belong to Mrs Manley's son Elliott, 20, and she said the pregnancy had been a surprise. The breed dogs, which made them popular and puppies could sell for up to £200 each, she added.

It is thought the theft occurred between 11am and 1pm on November 13.

The thieves left behind the family's other pet, a four-year-old collie-greyhound cross called Zip.

West Midlands Police spokesman Lee Page said: "We are looking into the theft of nine lurcher puppies and one adult dog."

"We are also aware there was a similar incident reported on November 6 of two puppies being stolen," he added.

"We managed to find and return them, however there were no arrests made."

Anyone with information should contact police on 101 or K9 Search UK on 07988 433187.

£1,144 care fraud by highly-paid chief

A care boss stole more than £1,000 from her employer while taking home a salary of £53,000.

Paula Goodyear defrauded Wolverhampton-based CM Community Care Services of £1,144 while the company, which employed her since 1999, was experiencing financial difficulties.

The 42-year-old from Dudley banked the money while employed as a senior care co-ordinator for the firm.

CM Community Care helps people live independently in their own homes by offering services including personal care and assistance with cleaning, laundry and shopping.

Wolverhampton Magistrates Court was told she asked the family of an elderly woman to write a cheque, which should have been payable to the firm, in her name during 2007.

The cash was paid for 10 sessions of care and supervision. Goodyear, of Old Park Road, also falsified paperwork to imply she had worked all 10 shifts herself when she had actually only done four, the court was told.

She pleaded guilty last week to one count of fraud by abuse of position and the case was adjourned until Thursday for a pre-sentence report.

Chairman of the bench Ray Page told Goodyear she may face jail.

Mr Roger Blezzard, prosecuting, said Goodyear had worked her way up in the company over eight years and had been in a position of trust at the time of the offence. "This is a fraud by a very senior person," he said.

Mrs Hasmita Patel, defending, said Goodyear, who has since resigned, had acted on "impulse" and was remorseful. She had suffered from ill health in the past and was anxious over the outcome of the court case.

Dancers dazzle for examiners

Youngsters at VJ's Dance Centre celebrates their success

Talented youngsters at a Brierley Hill dance centre are celebrating record results in their latest ballet and tap exams.

The 24 seven to 12-year-olds from VJ's Dance Centre dazzled examiners when they were put through their paces in the Central Dancing Association tests with more than 50 per cent gaining top-mark honours.

The rest all secured highly commended results.

Examiner Lizzie Greenaway said:

"It was an absolute delight to be entertained by such an able bunch of beautiful ballerinas and talented tappers."

The centre meets every Saturday at Withymore Primary School, Gayfield

Avenue, and the children are now busy preparing for their Let's Dance show at Brierley Hill Civic next March. Principal Vicki Williams, said: "I could not have wished for better results."

"The dance school is primarily about having fun and enjoying learning new skills, but the dedication of the students has been so disciplined and is reflected in these stunning results."

"I believe we have achieved a remarkably good balance between the demands of exam work and just having a good time expressing ourselves."

Anyone interested in the centre should call Vicki on 07914 858286.

Burglar makes apology to victim

A burglar who disturbed an elderly Black Country resident during a night-time raid on her home apologised before fleeing.

The 80-year-old woman was left 'shaken' after the intruder entered her bedroom.

Police said £20 was found to have been taken during the break-in in the Quarry Bank area of Dudley.

Officers said the elderly woman had gone to bed when the man walked into the bedroom and noticed her.

Police said he apologised before making his escape.

Detective Constable Louise Davies said: "We know the offender managed to get into the house through an insecure downstairs window."

Alone

"The terrible thing about this offence is that the victim was home alone at the time, which has understandably left her shaken."

The incident happened at around 8.45pm on November 9.

The burglar is described as a white man, around 6ft 2in with a slim build.

He is around 25 to 30 years old with a Birmingham accent.

He was wearing a black hooded top, black trousers and was carrying a red torch.

Police are appealing for anyone with information to call Dudley CID by dialling 101 or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

MP in rallying call over police station closures

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

A Dudley MP is calling for a parliamentary debate as campaigns to save five Black Country police stations threatened by overnight closure have been launched. Critics claim the controversial move would leave communities unprotected.

Shock proposals to close bases in Dudley, Stourbridge, Halesowen, Bloxwich and Wednesfield for up to 14 hours a day, starting at 6pm, have sparked campaigns across the region. The stations are among 12 in the West Midlands which would be affected by the plans.

Ian Austin MP for Dudley North, wants the plans to be debated in Parliament.

He has applied for a debate so MPs from across the region can challenge the Government about the proposals.

Mr Austin has been gathering signatures against the petition since he found out about the plans on last Wednesday.

On Saturday he and his team spent more than two hours in Dudley town centre collecting signatures. More than seven hundred people have now signed.

"We'll be taking it door-to-door this week and we've dropped off copies at shops in the town centre," he said. "On Friday we sent out an email to over 3,000 constituents asking them to fill in the petition and pass it on to their friends and family."

Musician is badly injured in stab attack

A 25-year-old man seriously injured after being stabbed in Dudley is a musician who has toured the world with his band.

Jack Turley, drummer in pop punk group, The Fight, was stabbed on Sunday night of last week in Cromwell Street, Kates Hill, along with Faid Saleh, aged 21.

Both were taken to Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital. Jack's sister and bandmate Kate Turley said: "The whole of the local community have been extremely supportive and have sent a lot of messages and kind words to pass on to my brother."

Scores of messages of support have been put on Facebook. His mother Maria wrote: "We would like to thank everyone for all the fantastic support and wishes."

Former Castle High School pupil Mr Turley, of Kates Hill, has been in the four-piece group since 2000. They recorded an album in 2004 with the producer of American band Fall Out Boy.

Sean Davies, 19, of Cromwell Street, Dudley, was charged with two counts of attempted murder, possession with intent to supply cannabis and possession of an offensive weapon. He appeared at Dudley magistrates last week and was remanded in custody. A second man, also 19, has been released on police bail.

"Lots of the crimes that people are most worried about – burglaries, violent crime and anti-social behaviour, tend to happen in the evening."

"So it's all the more important that we have a police station that's open round the clock and local officers that are available all day, every day. What we don't want is people being deterred from reporting crime because the nearest police station is too far away."

He said the region's MPs needed to let the Government know how dangerous and unpopular these plans were. "It's just unbelievable," he said.

Firm donates TV to school

Pupils at a Brierley Hill school are having their academic achievements displayed in style on a plasma television donated by bosses from a firm.

St Mary's Catholic Primary School has installed the screen which is used to inform youngsters of upcoming activities and congratulate them for good work.

The TV was donated by bosses from the Business Moves Group after parent Michael Downs, who works for the firm, asked if they could make a donation to buying it.

But chairman Simon Darvall offered to pay for the TV outright.

He and Mr Downs visited the school to see the TV and chat with youngsters.

Friends of St Mary's spokesman Natalie Field said the firm had been very generous and the TV had been a boost to the school.

She said: "We use the screen to highlight the achievements of pupils."

"It lets the children know that their work is important."

Top-mark playgroup

A playgroup near Stourbridge is celebrating after receiving its best Ofsted inspection results to date.

The Hagley playgroup, which is based in Hagley Community Centre, received outstanding accreditation in all categories.

These included the quality of the provision in the early years foundation stage, outcomes for children and the effectiveness of leadership and management. The playgroup, which has been running for 50 years, now takes children between the age of two and four and opens four mornings per week.

Playgroup manager, Sharon Gould, said: "We are absolutely thrilled with this result. Due to our playgroup being based within a community centre, we never expected that we would achieve outstanding grades across the board."

Rubbish bags to be delivered

A new delivery of bin bags for residents in Dudley to use when they are putting out their rubbish will begin being sent out next month.

A controversial three-bag limit on collections from each household in Dudley was imposed alongside the issuing of bin bags in bulk in September last year.

Bosses have now said the next roll of bags will be delivered along with next year's garden waste recycling calendar between December and March 2012.

However that will be dependent on the weather. Residents will not receive a recycling calendar this year, as collection days are unaltered, but they can download them from the website at www.dudley.gov.uk

Fears raised on sale of council building

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

The sell-off of a landmark Black Country building has been criticised and fears raised about its future. Sandwell Council is selling off the Municipal Building in Cradley Heath.

Located on the corner of Barrs Road and Halesowen Road, it was built in 1938 and has been used as offices for council staff since 1974.

It is being sold as part of a drive to sell former council buildings to raise money. Residents now fear for the future of the site but the council has defended the sell-off, blaming the move on budget cuts.

It says it needs to save £75 million by 2015. Cradley Heath and Old Hill Councillor Liz Bowler said she has been contacted by a number of residents concerned about the site, which is located on the corner of Barrs Road and Halesowen Road.

She said the building features on the Rowley Regis Heritage Trail, which includes other places of local historical interest such as Haden Hill House and Park, Cradley Heath Library, Corngreaves Hall and St Giles Church in Rowley.

Historical

Councillor Bowler said: "I have had several residents contact me because there are rumours that the building is going to be demolished and the land redeveloped for housing."

"I've contacted the council to ask if it were to be sold have any conditions been attached to any potential redevelopment of the building, which might possibly help to safeguard the structure as it stands, but unfortunately the council's officers don't appear to have considered this as yet."

Councillor Bowler added: "I feel really passionate about this, not only because I have lived opposite the building for so many years, but Sandwell Council seems to have a habit of neglecting our heritage."

However, the borough's economy boss, Councillor Ian Jones said the authority had no choice other than to sell off the building.

He said: "Because of the dramatic austerity cuts that this Government has imposed on the council, we are having to relocate our staff into centralised buildings."

"The issue of retaining the municipal building is something that I have looked at carefully over the last few months."

Workers steal £45k from council coffers

dudleychrons@
expressandstar.co.uk

More than £45,000 of taxpayers' cash has been stolen from council coffers in Dudley by unscrupulous employees pocketing extra money, it has emerged. In the past four years, a total of £45,050 has been lost.

It has gone through fraud, or corruption by people working for, or contracted by, the council. A hotline has now been set up for honest employees to shop their corrupt colleagues after the number of cases doubled between 2007 and last year.

Finance chief Councillor David Blood said it makes it easier for residents and council staff to report suspicions.

"Unfortunately, we know that fraud is going on, and we take a very dim view of it," said Mr Blood.

"A full investigation will be launched, and if we find that fraud has been carried out we will prosecute where we think it is necessary. Dudley Council has a zero tolerance against fraud."

Corruption

Frauds reported to the council include fraudulent use of money, such as people getting cash they are not entitled to, including payments for contracts, supplies or grants. It can also include the stealing or misusing of council resources, such as stores, equipment, vehicles or buildings belonging to the authority.

Figures obtained by the Chronicle's sister paper, the Express & Star under the Freedom of Information Act reveal that in 2007, 15 cases of fraud, theft or corruption were reported to the council, with £7,850 going missing from council funds in the form of cash or items stolen.

In 2010, this had increased to 30 cases, costing the council a massive £21,000. This was down from £6,950 stolen in 2009 and £5,250 stolen in 2008.
Between January and October this year, 15 cases were reported, costing the council a reported £3,500.

Five of those reports were received within the first month of the hotline's launch in September.

Bert signs school football

Bert Williams with pupils, left, Joel Cook and Sam Downing, both eight, signs a leather football for a charity auction at Rowley Hall Primary School

Sporting legend Bert Williams finally got round to signing a football for Sandwell school children last week – 60 years after the school first received it.

The 91-year-old goalkeeping great gave a leather ball to Rowley Regis
Primary School in Rowley Regis way back in 1951.

The ball, marked 'Bert Williams, Wolverhampton' on one side, with the word 'Molineux' on the other, has been hidden in a cupboard. Site manager John Green only found it when he came to clear it out. The ball was due to take pride of place in an auction for school funds. "Having Bert's signature on this ball is going to mean there is a lot of interest in it,"

said school office manager Sylvia Downing.

Two pupils, Sam Downing, from Cradley Heath, and Joel Cook, from Rowley Regis, both aged eight, went to Bert's house in Shifnal to get Bert's autograph.

Bert said: "I don't remember the ball, but I was delighted to sign it."

Council workers set to move

More than 150 workers at Dudley Council are to move to another office as part of a scheme to save cash and make better use of space. Staff in the human resources section of the local authority are to move to Regent House in King Street.

It is part of a project being carried out by Dudley Council which will see more than a third of council buildings which have been deemed unfit for purpose put on the market.

The move is to happen over the next three years under plans unveiled by council bosses earlier this year.

It is due to save an estimated £500,000 a year in running costs.

Regent House was until earlier this year used by the Future Skills Service.

However, the council lost its contract to run the service to provide employment and skills training to the private sector earlier this year.

Councillor Les Jones, leader of the council, said: "The project to move human resources to Regent House is part of a three-year project designed to make better use of the space used by the council in Dudley and make financial savings at the same time."

"By changing the way we work the 156 staff moving in HR will occupy less space and therefore associated costs will be less."

Councillor Tim Wright, cabinet member for human resources, said: "The aim of the move is to centralise them into one location which will create a more efficient way of working."

In total 24 of the council's offices and 11 customer reception buildings will be earmarked for sale but council chiefs are yet to announce which ones will go. However the Council House in Ednam Road, along with the buildings in St James Road and Parsons Street, will not be among them.

Borough bosses have been working on establishing in-dependent valuations of the sites before carrying out work on their possible future uses.

School's rating is top level

A school near Stourbridge is celebrating after being given the top grading by Ofsted.

Hagley Catholic High, Brake Lane, was rated "outstanding" and praised for having a "culture that nurtures success at every level".

The school was judged to be "good" during the last Ofsted report five years ago and teachers say they are "delighted".

Inspector Kevin Sheldrick said he was impressed by the "excellent behaviour of students" and said they have "a strong sense of duty and participate in activities that help others and improve the environment in the school and beyond".

He said efforts had been made to teach subjects in greater depth and give pupils a say in lesson organisation.

Headteacher, Ted Hammond said: "I'm delighted that the inspectors have recognised the exceptional efforts made by all of the staff and students."

Sss-oaking snake a hit at zoo

Like most females, Columbia the Brazilian rainbow boa enjoys a long soak in the bath in her vivarium at Dudley Zoo.

The tree snake spends a lot of time in the tub as the water helps to keep her rainbow scales gleaming.

The boa's rainbow colours are caused by the refraction of light as her scales act like mini-prisms, due to microscopic ridges, unseen to the naked eye.

Columbia is very much in demand for the zoo's Creature Features, which are informative educational talks with live animal demonstrations.

Presenter Langan Turner said: "Columbia is a tree snake really, but she adores water and spends a lot of time in the bath, as she loves the humidity and it is good for her skin."

"When we get her out of her vivarium we have to take a towel to dry her before she meets the public, as inevitably she has been having a long soak and is dripping wet."

"Columbia has a nice steady temperament so we use her for educational events, such as school-based talks and Creature Features in the community."

COMPETITION

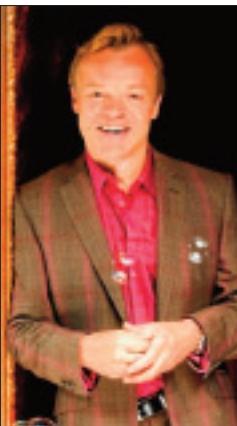

WIN tickets to see Rock With Laughter

Mock The Week's Dara O'Briain

Deadpan delivery from Jimmy Carr

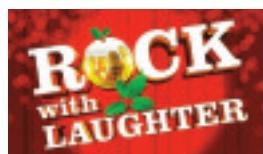

Graham Norton will host the show

THIS Christmas, get set to Rock With Laughter when the fantastic festive show rolls into the LG Arena on December 16 and 17.

We've teamed up with 'Birmingham's biggest Christmas party' to give away nine pairs of tickets to the show's opening night on December 16, for you to be entertained by top-class comedians and musicians in a night that's set to get you laughing all the way to Christmas.

Host Graham Norton will lead the festivities and be joined by comedians Jimmy Carr, Dara O'Briain and Sarah Millican.

As well as belly laughing fun, there will also be music from Marti Pellow and his band; award-winning Gabrielle and pop-art icons 10cc.

Rock With Laughter returns to the LG Arena this December for yet another year of fantastic fun.

To find out more about the show and line-up announcements, visit the websites at www.rockwithlaughter.com and www.lgarena.co.uk

HOW TO ENTER

To stand a chance of winning simply answer the following question:

Which pop group was Marti Pellow the lead singer of? Send your answer on a postcard with your name, address and contact number (only one entry per household) to Rock With Laughter competition, Chronicle series (editorial), 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES.

Closing date: Thursday, December 1. Usual rules apply. The Editor's decision is final.

CHRONICLE MOTORING
Powered by motors.co.uk

The winner's parents get the use of any of the current Audi car range free for a week

Win a ride in an Aston Martin and free use of one of the latest Audis

A RIDE in an Aston Martin and £1,000 to spend on a holiday are on offer to someone aged between 10 and 16 for writing a short story.

And the winner's mum or dad will have the pick of the current Audi car range, free for a week.

The prizes comes from the Midland Group of Motoring Writers and are in memory of one of its members, the late Phil Llewellyn from Oswestry, who contributed to magazines all around the world.

The Phil Llewellyn Award is aimed at budding motoring writers.

To enter, write a story of about 500 words on "my perfect car and the journey I'd take in it". Then email your story to brian.vertigen@btconnect.com

Closing date is January 8, 2012.
Please include your full name, date of birth, home address and telephone number.

A trophy and the prize package will be presented to the winner in the new year.

You can see the current winner at mgmw.co.uk

Midland Group chairman Ian Donaldson said: "The most recent winner of the competition has just got back from a holiday in Italy, paid for by the £1,000 of travel vouchers she won in the competition."

Fantastic

"Her mum and dad loved their week in a new Audi cabriolet and the winner is still talking about the trip to Aston Martin's HQ and a ride in one of the company's fantastic cars with a test driver at the wheel."

"And she won't ever forget actually driving a new Mercedes on a test track!"

Dealer is ready to host its special weekend

There is a very special weekend planned for Mercedes-Benz Retail Used Cars

This weekend's offers include two years' free servicing on most Mercedes models

There are more than 400 on-site cars at the dealership

THE Midlands' largest approved used Mercedes-Benz dealer is opening its doors for a special offer weekend at 9am tomorrow, Friday, November 25.

Offering unrivalled choice with more than 400 cars on site, most previously owned by Mercedes-Benz staff or company car drivers and starting from just £6,990, it's worth a visit if you're thinking of an early Christmas treat.

Dealer principal Adam McCullagh is looking forward to it. He said: "This is a really exciting time for Mercedes-Benz Retail Used Cars with more choice than ever before."

"We now have 400 cars on site, all ready to test drive. We've brought in a children's entertainer and refreshments for the weekend, so it's a great time to have a browse, knowing the kids will be happy, too."

Established in 2000 as Mercedes-Benz Direct, Mercedes-Benz Retail Used Cars, is owned by Mercedes-Benz UK, so clients have the reassurance of buying direct from the manufacturer.

The approved programme offers even more peace of mind with every car having a full service history, mileage guarantees, 12 months' warranty and more than 100 pre-sale checks carried out.

The deal can be tailored around what you require, with all makes and models taken in part exchange, and competitive valuations making an upgrade even more attractive.

Stylish

With weekly price checks to ensure that every car is competitively priced, whether you're looking for a compact A-Class, a roomy C-Class Estate or a stylish E-Class cabriolet, the Approved Used Mercedes-Benz that suits your needs and your budget can be found in Erdington.

The company is so confident about its prices that it will even search the internet with you to see if anyone else is offering the same car for less.

This weekend the offers are as stunning as their cars with two years' free servicing on most models available from Friday to Monday, November 28.

So with expert business managers to arrange funding and seven days' free insurance, you could be driving away in your new Mercedes knowing you've got a great deal and don't even have to worry about servicing.

And even if you don't buy this weekend, you can take advantage of the new brushless car wash system and drive away with your car looking showroom clean.

Located in Erdington, on the A38 Tyburn Road the dealership is open Monday to Friday from 9am until 7pm, Saturday from 9am to 6pm, and on Sunday from 11am until 5pm.

Mercedes-Benz invented the motorcar 125 years ago and has been perfecting it ever since.

Mercedes-Benz Retail Used Cars Birmingham thinks it has perfected the used car buying experience so visit this weekend to find out.

"The sales team is really looking forward to an exciting few days," adds Adam.

Tom's hat-trick leads the way as 1sts claim double wins

HOCKEY

DORITWICH 0 OHHC 1ST XI 5

Old Halesoniens 1st XI cruised to a 5-0 away victory against a struggling Dorditch side with Paul Woodall leading the way with a hat-trick.

He opened the scoring early on, after Tom Bulteel dribbled his way through the Dorditch defence, to find Woodall for an easy finish.

Bulteel got his name on the score sheet soon after, when a thrilling passing move with Marc Herickx split the defence open and left the two strikers with an easy pass around the keeper. Bulteel had no problems slotting the ball into an empty net, giving Hales a 2-0 lead.

Old Halesoniens dominated and with the home side pinned in, the visitors struck again before half time when Woodall got his second.

An inch perfect through ball from Mark Curzon found the sliding Woodall at the back post and he directed the ball into the goal.

The Hales side continued their domination into the second half. Graham Knight found the net when Herickx picked out his fellow striker, who fired home past a helpless Dorditch keeper. At 4-0, the game was all but over and Hales were able to find a fifth goal when man of the match Woodall completed his hat-trick in fine style, with another sliding goal at the back post, with the assist from Bulteel.

WOLVERHAMPTON 0 OHHC 1ST XI 3 (ENGLAND HOCKEY MEN'S TROPHY ROUND 3)

The 1sts beat a weakened Wolverhampton side on Sunday, to put themselves into round four.

Hales dominated their second fixture of the weekend, with Wolverhampton struggling to find a way past the visitors' defence.

Goals from Tom Bulteel and Paul Woodall saw Old Hales 2-0 up at half time.

Bulteel claimed another in the second half before Wolverhampton's only chance, a reverse stick shot, was palmed away with ease by goalkeeper Steve Charlton.

Another clean sheet came with ease.

OHHC 2ND XI 3 KHALSA 2

The 2nds XI returned to action this week with a 3-2 victory over Khalasa.

Hales, who were without captain Steve Charlton, fought hard in a gritty but determined performance to earn themselves a much deserved victory. The game started with several Khalasa players missing. Old Hales quickly took advantage of this, capitalising on their possession with a well-worked goal within a minute of the push back.

Ash Greaves drove down the right hand side of the D, then played in Nick Truelove, who slotted it passed a dazzled Khalasa goalkeeper.

Khalasa drew level with a successful penalty flick conversion awarded after the visitors forward was impeded after trying to shoot at goal. After a rousing second half team, the home side attacked quickly again with Tom Bolton putting in the leg work out wide.

His pass found Nathan Kelly, who民俗 himself before, finding True love to bag his second.

During a tough tackling part of the game Old Hales' Jake Brooke got shown yellow after a physical challenge.

The away side benefited from Hales being a man down to draw level.

But with less than two minutes remaining, the Khalasa defence crumpled as Kelly's pass found Greaves, who buried the ball into the goal.

BRIDGNORTH 2 OHHC 3RD XI 0

Bridgnorth beat a weakened Hales side, who struggled with problems.

OHHC 4TH XI 4 BARFORD TIGERS 2

The 10 men of Old Hales surprisingly dominated this game which saw goals from Chris Jones, Darren Rose, Craig Bray and Paul Robinson.

STRATFORD 1 OHHC 5TH XI 2

The 10 young men of Old Hales surprisingly beat an experienced Stratford side. With only one player over the age of 18, Hales easily saw off Stratford.

After a goalless first half Old Hales got the goal they deserved when Mike Link found Josh Thomas in the D. He calmly flicked the ball into the net, giving him his sixth goal in as many games.

A penalty corner saw Hales double their lead, after a scrappy routine saw the ball fall to Ash Underhill, who found the goal.

Stratford finally started to test the Old Hales' excellent defence, and they got a goal back off a penalty corner.

Ludlow 3-0 OHHC Ladies

Hooper is super in bonus victory

OLD HALESOWEN 34 LICHFIELD 0

Old Halesoniens maintained pressure on the leading pack with a 34-0 bonus point win at home to Lichfield.

Both sides went into the game believing they could win having taken points of each other in last seasons matches.

Old Hales enjoyed the majority of the opening exchanges but were let off as the visiting side failed to take advantage of ill discipline by missing two penalties.

The home team replied with a penalty of their own soon after from full back Chris Hooper, who went on to record a 19 point haul.

Old Halesoniens dominated the remaining first half with three quick and well-worked tries.

Centre Andy Robinson scored the first following a sustained period of pressure and numerous phases.

The other tries came from Hooper and hooker Keiran Price, scoring on his debut.

Both of which were as a result of forced errors created by good pressure defence from the home side.

Hooper converted two of them.

Fought

Lichfield started the second half with added gusto and had the majority of territory.

But Old Hales defensive effort should be applauded as it was clear they would not give up points without a fight.

Lichfield were left down hearted when further excellent defence from one to 15 provided a turnover for Hooper to score away for another try.

The remainder of the match was fought in between the halfway and home sides 20 metre line with Lichfield making a valiant effort but could just not break down the wall of defence in their path.

The last act of the match saw Lichfield pressing to find consolation try only for another defensive turnover.

This allowed winger Simon Sable to show pace from his own half and touch down near to the posts.

With Hooper converting this left the home side with a 34-0 bonus point victory.

Following Walsall's loss this takes Old Halesoniens to third in the league.

STOURBRIDGE UNDER 13S DIVISION 1 HALAS HAWKS 2 HASBURY RANGERS 4

This was the second meeting of the teams within a week and once again Hasbury came out winners. After early Halas running, Hasbury started to boss proceedings and should have opened the scoring but Jordan Harris miscued with the net gapping. They won a foul just outside the area for a reckless challenge and Jimmy Williams hit his trademark free kick for the first goal.

HALAS 3 PENNETT PANTHERS 2

The U13s cup game started at a fast pace with Halas taking a 3-0 lead in the first 12 minutes through a Brad Hickman hat-trick.

Pennett battled hard and replied with two goals before the half-time break.

HALAS LADIES 8 TIPTON 0

Halas Hawks Ladies were always in control, with four goals from Gemma Colledge and a brace each for Katie Monk and Jodie Jones.

Stars of the Alternative Wrestling World will make their return to the Haden Hill Leisure Centre on Saturday. The venue, in Barrs Road, Cradley Heath, has seen its fair share of action, but that will all pale in comparison when AWW crash land. Tickets are available from the centre for £7 each if bought in advance, or £8 on the night. Doors open at 6pm and the show starts at 6.30pm.

second half Hasbury were three goals up through Adam Smith and George Taylor.

As Hasbury let up, Halas got back into the game and scored from a corner. But Hasbury got their fourth, and best, with five players involved in a move that produced some lovely one-touch football.

The final ball fell to Williams and from about 12 yards out he smashed a shot the keeper could only palm into the net. In the final five minutes Halas went for broke and got their second but Hasbury held out.

Man of the match went to George Taylor.

Chilton's deflected shot then won a Halesowen corner and from the set-piece Gavin Saunders' header brought a smart save from Nathan Ashmore as the game swung from end to end up to half-time. Hale-sowen continued to look dangerous going forward and began the second half quickly with some slick football putting Boro' on the back foot.

But the injury curse struck again with Jones requiring lengthy treatment in the Gosport penalty area. Justin Nisbett looked lively for the Yeltz and Jones forced another good save from Ashmore as the visitors created a series of half chances.

The Yeltz also had their fair share of injury worries with Michael McGrath struck by a ricochet off Laycock, leaving him doubled up in agony and in need of treatment.

Gosport threatened again in the 28th minute when Molyneaux's downward header forced Evans into a smart save.

stars of the Alternative Wrestling World will make their return to the Haden Hill Leisure Centre on Saturday. The venue, in Barrs Road, Cradley Heath, has seen its fair share of action, but that will all pale in comparison when AWW crash land. Tickets are available from the centre for £7 each if bought in advance, or £8 on the night. Doors open at 6pm and the show starts at 6.30pm.
